BOOK SYNOPSIS

When young Alice and her kindly old neighbor, Mr. Fredricks (who always reminds Alice of Santa Claus), accidentally collide in the hall of their apartment building, his glasses fall off — and that's when the magic begins! Alice puts on the glasses out of curiosity and is enchanted to see what Mr. Fredricks sees: the love and light in others.

Join Alice and Mr. Fredricks on a magical journey down Main Street, and let Mr. Fredricks show how kindness towards others makes a difference in us all. You won't want to miss what Alice adds to her Christmas wish list after this special day!

Beautifully illustrated, professionally edited, this book will bring Christmas magic to every day as a reminder to treat others well.
